WINE SPECTATOR - 2012 COMMAND SHIRAZ

93 Points

Restrained and elegant, with polished plum, blueberry and violet notes, accented by wild raspberry, anise and toffee. The elements all come together with refined, supple tannins and a long, persistent finish. Drink now through 2030.—M.W.

VINOUS, REVIEWED BY JOSH RAYNOLD - 2013 GREENOCK ONE SHIRAZ

91 Points

Youthful purple color. Vibrant, precise aromas of dark berries and flowers complicated by licorice, violet and espresso flourishes. Sappy and penetrating on the palate, with bitter cherry and blackcurrant flavors unfolding and putting on weight with air. Combines richness and vivacity smoothly, finishing gently sweet and very long, with subtle, fine-grained tannins building steadily.

COMING SOON - 2016 EDEN VALLEY RIESLING

Whilst we have a small portion of 2015 Eden Valley Riesling still available we are looking forward to the release, very soon, of our 2016 vintage! Showing all the true varietal characteristics that an Eden Valley Riesling should it is amazingly balanced, fresh and crisp.

This will also be the first wine released as part of our new look 'Estate' labels and range.....

NEW VINTAGE RELEASE

WINE OF THE MONTH

2013 Neil Ashmead Grand Tourer Shiraz

Grown from a single block on the Elderton Estate with the use of sustainable methods, we believe this wine is something completely different and unexpected from Elderton, but sits perfectly within our premise to gain recognition for premier single vineyard wines. Fermented in our waxed open fermenters with heading boards and pressed early straight to new French oak hogsheads, for 15 months. Blackberry & bramble fruit with bready, meaty and savoury yeast characters, full rich palate and great length. This wine will constantly evolve in the glass from savoury meaty characters to red and black fruits. Winemaker - Richard Langford.

AUTUMN IS HERE, VINTAGE IS OVER

Barossa vintage 2016 is being classed as a 'stand out', with exceptional quality and high quantity (compared to the previous 5 years yields). Rich colour, flavour and ripe tannins evolved from January rain and the following mild conditions.

Here at Elderton we are looking forward to seeing how our reds now develop and grow in barrel after such a promising start in the vineyard with Shiraz looking like the overall winner of the 2016 vintage varieties.
