MONTHLY UPDATE - MARCH 2019

NEW REVIEWS

2017 Barossa GSM - Wine of the Week - Winsor Dobbin 15 February 2019

The Ashmead family can be relied upon to produce impressive wines at fair prices; often edging towards the more elegant style of Barossa reds. This is a case in point... There is a lot of flavour here, some complexity, too, but most of all there is serious drinkability...

WINES OF THE MONTH - 2015 COMMAND & 2016 ASHMEAD

The team at Elderton always looks forward to 1 March, the date when the new vintages of our flagship wines are released to the world. Seeing the excitement of our fans, friends and family makes the years of hard work in producing these exceptional wines all very worthwhile. Even before anyone has tasted this year's releases, many are already getting very excited as both 2015 for Shiraz and 2016 for Cabernet are being considered as outstanding vintages. ### VINTAGE UPDATE

It's been a crazy week, with 5 days of 36+ heat with more to come over the weekend! The winery is set for vintage to hit full swing next week. Tomorrow sees our Merlot be the first pick to the winery. On Monday the fruit will come in for the Rosé, along with the first hand-pick of Command (which is picked over a few weeks). Yields will be down, but we are still expecting outstanding quality from across our three vineyards.
